Focus Question: What's been your greatest learning?

Description

And here we are. In the final week of the year. As you look back at 2020, what stands out, or maybe the better question is, what's not been memorable, or record setting.

What a year! I hope that you have enjoyed our journey together and want to leave you with some reflection questions:

The one thing I want to remember about this process is:

- I want to acknowledge ____ about myself:
- I am proud of:
- I have gotten clear on:
- I am going to celebrate my accomplishments by:
- Going forward, 1-3 themes which are important to me are:
- As I step into the new year I will...
- Take a look at the word cloud which captures some of our core themes for the year.

Enjoy the conversation and focus!

"For last year's words belong to last year's language and next year's words await another voice." TS Eliot

Looking Ahead

Take note of the many questions asked here throughout the year.

Be sure to keep visible some of your favorite questions, and bring them into your conversations!

Activity

Review your notes from the year, highlighting for yourself key themes, learning and insights.

Celebrate. Love. And Keep on Learning.
